8. Committee Reports	New marketing effort in EWH Business district: Tom Slanker and his wife Julie Van Arsdale. Banners, etc., central telephone number for those businesses interested in locating in EWH. Communiqué: we are working to get out this issue in the loss of Dorothea, its past editor. Contributions of articles were strongly requested. Focus of this issue will be Dorothea. We are seeking a Board Member who could serve as Editor. Advertising is still in the mix of possibilities. De Sales Corner Business Group:  Northwest side of Woodburn and Madison has parking restrictions which prohibit business. We are in the process of requesting the 4-6, 7-9 no parking signs removed, to help current businesses.  San Marco Mini Plaza: we need to fund the cost of the paint; we have a few small donations to begin to cover this.  Parking lot: Lawrence Barksdale has requested a complimentary parking space in exchange for his special and consistent clean-up efforts. Garden Group/plant sale: It is going well; orders are closed. Pickup will be on April 29 at French Building. There will be some extra plants for sale for those who did not get order in. We are looking good for volunteers for event. Owls Nest Park: Rae Vuic reported that plan was approved by the Park board. Funding campaign will begin soon. Aug. 10 will be "Everybody's backyard picnic". (5:30—8:30)  Priority request forms—indicate top three projects for neighborhood. All three Evanston, EWH and Obryonville have all agreed to list Owl's Nest as one of three top priorities.  Website: updated. Joe needs entries for properties available.	EWHA endorse funding by City for Owl's Nest Park:  1st: Keith Glaser  2nd: Dianne Marcus  Unanimous affirmative vote..
9. Old business/new business	Council Member David Crowley was introduced. He said he was here as member of the community. New business: slate of nominees: 3 vacancies—Dianne Marcus; Tom Slanker; Betty Hull. Rae Vuic willing to fill vacancy created by the loss of Dorothea Kennedy. We can still fill in the editorship of the Communiqué' with another nominee. By-laws encourage year's participation in the Assembly, but exceptions can be made in times of need.

	Another need if anyone has time: cleaning out files from substation. Christa Criddle from Council Member Monzell's office: encouraged us all to take Monzell report.
